

Newsquiz - Week of April 30

Just the facts -- The questions below pertain to the stories that you saw this week on CNN Student News. To prove you know some of the details behind the stories, fill in the answers in the spaces provided.

1. What country's citizens held massive protests in support of a secular government?
2. What vote is required in Congress to override a presidential veto?
3. What country's security was the subject of a conference held this week in Sharm el-Sheikh?
4. What issue was the focus of demonstrations throughout the U.S. on Tuesday?
5. Which U.S. president used his veto power the most times?
6. What is the name of Britain's security and anti-spy service?
7. Who is the secretary of state who represented the U.S. at this week's summit in Sharm el-Sheikh?
8. What royal visitor, in the U.S. to celebrate the 400th anniversary of Jamestown, addressed Virginia's General Assembly?
9. Who was the only U.S. astronaut to fly in the Mercury, Gemini and Apollo missions?
10. What is Professor Kim Jong-Hwan trying to program into robots?