

RESPONSES TO CNN'S CALLS FOR EARMARK REQUESTS

June 29, 2007

Starting Monday, CNN's interns made calls to all 100 senators, asking them if they would release their 2008 earmark requests -- or tried to ask. More often than not, the interns were immediately sent to voice mail or calls were never returned. Of the 100 senators, 18 flat out said they would not give us their lists, - 1 -and 70 did not bother to return our calls. Only six gave us their requests and six said they did not ask for any earmark projects.
