

Name: _____

Date: _____

Newsquiz - Week of March 9

Name that noun - Use the following clues to identify people, places or things that were mentioned on CNN Student News this week. Fill in your answers in the space provided.

1. Lawmakers in this U.S. state proposed a bill that would require some cyclists to pay a fee for riding a bike on highways.
2. This militant group claimed responsibility for a deadly attack in Northern Ireland that claimed the lives of two British soldiers.
3. This is a machine that is driven by the pressure or momentum of a moving fluid, such as water or air.
4. The U.S. military announced that 12,000 troops will leave this nation by the fall.
5. He pleaded guilty to 11 criminal charges related to a massive Ponzi scheme.
6. Fifty years ago this month, this Buddhist leader fled from Tibet during an uprising against the Chinese government.
7. Morgan Tsvangirai, the prime minister of this nation, was involved in a deadly car accident.
8. An Iraqi journalist was sentenced to three years in jail as punishment for hurling these items at then-President George W. Bush.
9. U.S. President Barack Obama says he'll consider talking with some members of this group to try and bring peace to Afghanistan.
10. President Obama signed an executive order concerning the use of these types of human cells for scientific research.