

A topographic map of the Middle East region, showing the Golan Heights area. A black callout box with white text points to the Golan Heights. The map uses a color gradient from green to brown to represent elevation. National borders are shown as thin black lines. The Mediterranean Sea is visible to the west, and the Red Sea to the south. The Golan Heights is a small, elevated area on the northern border of Israel, overlooking the Mediterranean Sea. A white arrow points from the callout box to the Golan Heights.
