

Student News Newsquiz - Week of October 25

True or False? -- The following sentences relate to events that were covered this week on CNN Student News. See if you can determine whether each statement is true or false as written. If the statement is false, replace the underlined word or phrase with one that would make the sentence true. Write your answers in the space provided.

1. In the United States, Election Day is November 2 this year.
2. A new study called the Blue List says that one-fifth of vertebrates are at risk of going extinct.
3. The French government's plan to raise the retirement age from 60 to 65 led to nationwide protests.
4. Organizers set up a siesta competition at a shopping mall in Madrid, Nicaragua.
5. Whistle-blower website WikiLeaks published thousands of classified military documents about the war in Iraq last Friday.
6. This week, the island nation of Japan suffered through an earthquake, a tsunami that was caused by the earthquake, and a volcanic eruption.
7. The average voter turnout for U.S. elections is lower than in Afghanistan.
8. Officials in Haiti are fighting an outbreak of anthrax.
9. Several tornadoes, which are measured on the Enhanced Richter Scale, were reported during severe weather that ripped through the American Midwest this week.
10. October 29 marks the anniversary of Black Tuesday, a stock market crash that happened in 1932.